

9th June 2018, Choral Festival Evensong at the Royal Chapel – Protestant Church of Brussels, Rue du Musée 2 - 1000 Brussels, at 4pm: https://fr.wikipedia.org/wiki/%C3%89glise_protestante_de_Bruxelles_\(Chapelle_royale\))

A special Evensong by members of choirs from all over the Benelux in the beautiful is by conducted by Piers Maxim (Clare College, Cambridge), well-known in Brussels as he was formerly at La Monnaie Opera and is now Musical Director at Malvern Abbey, England.

The Evensong features some of the greatest composers of choral music for us to enjoy including Serge Rachmaninov, Charles Ives, William Byrd and ending with the world premiere of a specially commissioned anthem by Stevie Wishart (visiting music fellow, Cambridge 2014-2015).
